E-mail Disclaimer

Emails and any attached files sent from Towyn & Kinmel Bay Town Council addresses are confidential, may be legally privileged and may contain personal views that are not the views of Towyn & Kinmel Bay Town Council. This also applies to emails and attached files sent from any private email addresses of members of Towyn & Kinmel Bay Town Council.

Email is intended solely for the correct addressee(s). If you receive an email from a Towyn & Kinmel Bay Town Council Officer or a member of the Council and you are not the intended recipient, please notify us by replying to the email (please copy in the Town Clerk in your response on: clerk@tkbtc.co.uk or by telephoning the Town Council on: 01745 355899). Once you have done this, please delete the email/attachment and do not disclose, copy, distribute or rely on it.

As part of the requirements of the Data Protection Act 2018 and the Freedom of Information Act 2000, emails and their attachments (sent to or received by Officers or Councillors) may need to be disclosed – this applies to emails from official Town Council email addresses and also the private email addresses of members corresponding on Town Council business.

Towyn & Kinmel Bay Town Council reserves the right to monitor and obtain sent and received emails which relate to Town Council business and as part of its Communication Policy acknowledges that all members of the Council should copy the Town Clerk in on all correspondence relating to the Town Council so as to ensure compliance with the Freedom of Information Act 2000.
